

Weather:

Summer: around 20–26°C

Winter: around 3–5°C

Frequent rain throughout the year

Visitors per year:

Around 10 million tourists per year

Where to Go

Canal Ring (UNESCO site)

Jordaan District (charming streets)

Museumplein (museum area)

Red Light District (historic area)

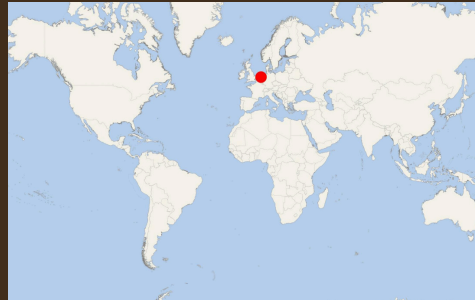

Vondelpark (main park)

Basic information

Where:

Amsterdam is the capital of the Netherlands, located in Western Europe.

Language:

Dutch (but most people also speak English fluently)

Currency:

Euro (€ – EUR)

1 euro = 5,94 reais

THE VENICE OF THE NORTH

Discover canals, culture, history, and unforgettable experiences in the capital of the Netherlands.

How Much Does It Cost (1 Week)

Estimated budget (per person):

Flight:

Brazil → Amsterdam: €700 – €1,200

Accommodation:

Budget hotel/hostel: €40–€100 per night

Total (7 nights): €280 – €700

Transport (Transfer):

Public transport + airport transfer: €50 – €100

Total (1 week):

Around €1,000 – €2,000

(Amsterdam is considered an expensive city, so planning ahead is important)

Why Visit Amsterdam?

Amsterdam offers a mix of:

History

Culture

Freedom

Unique canals

A perfect destination for an unforgettable trip!

Things to See and Do

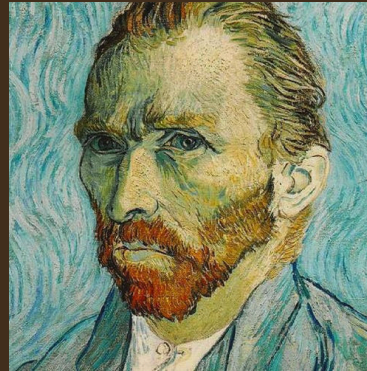

Visit museums (Rijksmuseum, Van Gogh Museum)

Take a canal boat tour

Ride a bicycle like locals

Explore historic streets and canals

Enjoy festivals and nightlife

Foods to Try

Stroopwafels (sweet waffles with caramel)

Haring (raw herring fish)

Kroket (fried snack with meat filling)

Stamppot (mashed potatoes with vegetables)

What to Bring

When visiting Amsterdam, it's important to be prepared for the weather and lifestyle of the city.

Warm clothes – The weather can be cold and windy, even in summer

Rain jacket or umbrella – Rain is very common

Comfortable shoes – You will walk a lot
Casual clothes – Perfect for biking around the city

Credit/debit card – Most places accept cards

Phone and charger – For maps and photos
ID or passport – Always important when traveling

